A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all Lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two billion bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price, 75c. et Green's Special Almanac. W. T. rooks.

N. Jackson, Danville, Ill., writes: "My daughter had a severe attack of la grippe and a terrible cold settled on her lungs. We tried a great many remedies without giving relief. She tried Foley's Honey Tar which cured her. She has never been troubled with a cough since."

AMUSEMENTS.

The title role in "A Royal Prisoner," is a Soldier of Fortune, surprising in audacious assurance the D'Artagnan of Dumas' "Three Guardsmen," and the recklessness of "Don Caesar." The escapades of this gay cavalier gave the Queen no little trouble. The story of the play is a love affair told in an interesting way. It concerns a young soldier of fortune and the Queen herself. This forms the basis around which is woven a number of incidents which are well portrayed, full of absorbing interest, splendidly constructed, and clean and wholesome in tone. Mr. James, who recently captured Boston, Buffalo and other large cities, and who is now classed as one of the "royal" rivals over the different versions of Don Caesar, will be seen in the title role, the young Soldier of Fortune, who risks all for his love and honor, at the Grand, to-morrow night.

This will be the first and last opportunity our theatre-goers will have this season to witness the reigning success.
Prices: 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

"For Love's Sake" the new play written by H. Gattan Donnelly and adapted for Mabel and Ethel Strickland will appear at the Grand for a matinee performance only, next Saturday afternoon. Mr. Donnelly has written many successful plays and is perhaps one of the best known dramatists in America. Among his successes are "Darkest Russia," "Natural Gas," "Woman in Black" and several other popular standard attractions. He writes a play for a person or a number of persons, not because he is commissioned to do so, but because he wants to. He studies the character of his star, perhaps unknown to them, and then adapts a play to suit the characteristic talent of that person. In the case "For Love's Sake" Mr. Donnelly says: "I was more fortunate in this piece than I would have been writing for an individual star, because I had two talented actresses to write for, each clever in her distinct line and both blending so as to make an entirely harmonious entity."

"For Love's Sake" is a well written, well sustained romantic drama in four acts, based on a traditional contempt of the older German upper class of Americans, and the plot hinges on the endeavor of a German Nobleman to keep his son from marrying a talented, cultured American girl.

The time of the play is that of the Franco-Prussian war and in the last act, showing the battlefield before the siege of Metz, the scenic effects, and action of the piece present one of the best dramatic climaxes on the stage. The curtain will rise promptly at 2 o'clock. Doors open at 1:15. Special matinee prices—25, 35 and 50c. Seats on sale Friday morning.

Judge Henry Haviland, of Harrison county, sold his farm of 218 acres to Mr. J. G. Mofford, of Georgetown, the price being about $6,500.

Turney Bros., of Paris, have received a telegram from General W. H. Jackson, of Belle Meade Stud, at Nashville, stating that their noted Forencia, by Virginio, had foaled a filly by the $15,000 The Commoner. The youngster is a sister to Maude Gonno.

Frank P. Kenney and Kenner Walker, of Lexington, have formed a co-partnership for the purpose of conducting combined horse sales. Their first sale will be held at Lexington in October, during the trotting meeting.

It has been settled that the Capitol will remain at Frankfort, but it has not been settled, as yet, they will get an appropriation for new buildings. It seems that Lexington was not over anxious to secure the Capitol.

THERE is no question in the minds of the general public as to their wishes on the light question. What they want, and want badly, is light all night.

For 28 cents in stamps, you can get a free trial of Wilson's Tobacco Cure. Has cured thousands.
